Planning Board Wants

HIGH DENSITY TRAFFIC ZONE

The Wilmington Planning Board is planning to soon advertise for a public hearing to discuss the merits of a 'High Density Traffic Business District' in Wilmington. Hearings are being scheduled for the second Wednesday in September.

The proposal being prepared by the Planning Board is a long one. The board spent nearly three hours, in its Tuesday night meeting, reviewing the proposal with Selectman Carl Backman Jr.

The new zoning concept, which is in some degree taken from a similar concept in the Town of Burlington, would include many types of business that generates heavy traffic, such as places with 'drive-in' facilities, salesroom for automobiles, commercial parking, motels and hotels, etc. Provisions are being planned for an Appeals set-up for the proposed by-law.

Backman, Tuesday night, specifically spoke up for Drive In Restaurants, Gasoline Stations and Car Washes to be in the new proposed zoning, and, when a Drive In Theatre was mentioned, he said "that's beautiful!"

The hearing, when held, is to be in the 'Town House' which was formerly the Mildred Rogers School.

Other Business

Robert Smith of South Street, and Ron MacMullin of Radcliffe Road had drainage problems to discuss with the Planning Board Tuesday evening, relative to the new Benson Park, now almost completed.

Mr. Smith told the board that he had been discussing his problem with the developer, and as a result about a dozen loads of fill were dumped on his property this summer by the developer. Smith felt that the developer had thereby admitted his 'fault' and that he should also spread the fill, so he could start on his lawn in September.

The developer is scheduled to meet with the board in a couple of weeks, and this, Smith was told, would be a subject to discuss with him.

Voter Registration ends 10 pm Saturday

Any resident of Wilmington wishing to vote in the upcoming primary election must be a registered voter by the end of the day on August 15th.

The Board of Registrars will be in the Town Hall from noon to 10 P.M. on Saturday for the purpose of making last minute registrations.

Youth Meeting to be held next Thursday

Ken Zucker, Director of Recreation for the Town of Wilmington has invited the teen-agers of Wilmington to attend an Open Meeting in the Wilmington Memorial Library, on Aug. 20th at 8 pm, to discuss the Recreation Program, and other problems, with concerned adults.

Mr. Zucker, in a public statement, says that the problems which have been demonstrated by the letter of Wayne Lockaman, in the Town Crier last week, have been recognized. He hopes that interested parties, young folks and adults, will attend for a frank and open discussion.

Zucker, last Thursday, met with Wayne Lockaman and David Gordon, a friend, to discuss the problem. Also present were Lt. John Imbimbo of the Wilmington Police and George Mosher of the Wilmington Drug Committee, in the Town House - formerly the Mildred Rogers School.

The conversation was on where and why the young people seem to need their own places to meet, and the problems of the places where they do meet.

Lt. Imbimbo said that with the mobility of the young people today, in automobiles, the parking lots have taken over the former street corner meeting places. He complimented the young people of Wilmington as being a "remarkable group of young people" and said that he would do any thing to help them.

Zucker, as reported above, felt that an open meeting to air the problems would be welcome, and Mr. Mosher expressed a wish that something be done for the 13-16 year olds, because the only thing available for them at the present time is the Silver Lake area.

Burglary Victim Offers Reward

Residents of Woburn Street and nearby streets have been subjected recently to a series of burglaries, most of them being suspected of being the work of younger people.

One man who has been so burglarized is now offering a $50 reward for information leading to the recovery of the items stolen, or for information leading to the identity of the burglars.

Ronald H. Wolff, of 584 Woburn St. returned home last Saturday morning to find a number of items missing in his home.

The list of the loot includes: Two stereo component systems, consisting of two Sony Tape Decks, a Dynakit Pat 4 Preamplifier, a Lafayette AM-FM receiver, a Garrard SL-55 Automatic Turntable, and a set of professional headphones.

Also missing are a Fender "Villager" 12 string acoustic guitar, an electric bass guitar, a shortwave radio, a white Admiral portable TV set, a Smith-Corona electric typewriter, an old model Smith Corona manual portable typewriter, two Timex watches with expandable metal bands, a Polaroid "Swinger" camera and a Singer sewing machine.

$50 cash is being offered by Mr. Wolff for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the burglars and he says that anonymous tips will be accepted.

FIVE MORE BROKEN WINDOWS

Five windows were broken, at the High School, some time Sunday. The windows were on the side next to the Roman Barn, and they were found to be broken about 8 pm by the police.

Highway Hearings Postponed to August 25

Three hearings, scheduled for today and to start at 12:30 pm in the County Commissioners Office in the Court House in Cambridge have been postponed.

Hearings had been scheduled on the new Route 129 By-Pass for Wilmington, for the building of the new bridge over the B&M Railroad, proposed by Rep. Fred F. Cain, and for the widening of Andover Street.

The hearings are now scheduled for 12:45 pm on August 25, at the County Commissioners Office in Cambridge.

Sons of Italy Case will be heard Sept. 8

The Wilmington Board of Appeals has set the date of September 8 to hear the controversial case of an appeal by the Sons of Italy for the right to build a clubhouse on Salem Street, near the Tewksbury line.

The hearing is allowed under a ruling from the court, and one was set for the middle of July, but an error in the advertisement in the Town Crier forced cancellation. Town Counsel Alan Altman, and Atty. Simon Cutter agreed that it would be better to postpone the hearing, even though the error was in effect corrected in a front page story the same week, in the Town Crier.

The hearing is to be held in the Town Hall, to accommodate the crowd which is expected.

Mrs. Colon Dunbar surveys a scene of just plain vandalism. Her garden, which is 100 feet by 125 feet, near the Dunbar home at 81A Grove Avenue, was completely pulled up by vandals, during the night of August 7th. Everything was destroyed, corn, winter squash, cucumbers, peppers, tomatoes, egg plants, pole beans & cabbage. Only the weeds remain.

The board voted to send the letter to the Town Manager.

A letter was received from Zane A. Bower of 28 Nathan Road, who is a Land Planner, discussing the proposals for the new bridge over the B&M RR, which was discussed last week in a public hearing in the Public Library.

The letter discussed the problems at length, and gave five reasons why the bridge should be built.

Northern Heights

Several hours were spent in examining a plan of a new proposed subdivision, on the old Roberts Estate off Burlington Avenue, to be called Northern Heights.

The plan, a 'preliminary plan', was turned down by the Planning Board, which gave approximately 10 reasons for its action, among them no report from the Conservation Commission, no report from the Board of Health and no report from the Board of Water Commissioners, and the final one that the plan has been observed to be widely at variance with town records and air photos.

The new subdivision would have 58 house lots, according to the plan, and proposes to connect Nassau Ave., and proposes to connect to Nassau Avenue, which starts at Shawsheen Avenue, so that it would become a through street to Burlington Avenue.

According to the plan the owner of the property was Edward J. Early Jr of Lowell.

Much of the work of preparing the objections for the proposed subdivision had been done by Professor Charles W. Eliot, who is the Planning Consultant to the board.

Selectmen's Meeting

The Selectmen's Meeting on Monday evening opened with a moment of silence for Richard Cushing, at the request of Felice Vitale.

Joe Bulger of Wilmington Youth Hockey was granted a license subject to the approval of the building inspector, to operate a carnival on September 9, 10, 11 & 12.

The Elections Officers were re-nominated, with the exception of Mrs. Florence Borofsky, who is now a member of the Wilmington Housing Authority. Her job as clerk will be taken by Mrs. M. Gertrude Condry, who had been Deputy Clerk.

Nominations to fill the job of Deputy Clerk were Mrs. Loretta R.

Caira of Chestnut Street, nominated by Selectman MacDonald, and Mrs. Kay Leverone, nominated by Selectman Banda. Mrs. Caira was elected.

The election officers are now: Harold E. Melzar, Warden; Stanley Webber, Deputy Warden; M. Gertrude Condry, Clerk; Loretta R. Caira, Deputy Clerk; Mildred A. Dolan, Inspector; Olive Sheldon, Inspector; Florence Balkus, Deputy Inspector; Elizabeth Cavanaugh, Deputy Inspector.

A license was granted to Harnum, Inc. of Woburn Street to repair only their own equipment in their new garage.

Permission was granted to the Charles River Breeding Laboratories to erect a garage to house their trucks.

A request from the Secretary of State for a character reference on Lester White was forwarded to the Police Department for a routine check. Mr. White is one of those who have filed to form a corporation to be known as the Greater Lowell Drug Treatment and Rehabilitation Program, Inc. He is a member of the Wilmington Drug Committee.

It was voted to send a telegram to the legislators in opposition to the possible over-ride of the Governor's veto of S1388, which would increase accidental disability retirement of public employees. The bill places most of the burden on the towns of the Commonwealth, the Selectmen decided.

Carl Backman said he had been contacted by Brand Avenue area residents wanting something to be done about drainage in the area now. The proposals of the state engineers may drain the area when the bridge over the B&M RR is built, but the residents would like something to be done in the meantime.

Miceli said he had been called by Mrs. Howe of Woburn Street concerning the Woburn Street - Wildwood Street intersection. He feels a Stop sign is necessary.

Miceli also said he felt the traffic islands near the Woburn Street School were not serving their purpose. He said that the island in front of the school, and the island on the opposite side of the bridge over Route 93 "where the Selectmen had the fence put up" at the intersection of Woburn and Park Streets had no Keep Right signs, and the islands, he felt, should be removed.

Town Manager Sterling Morris felt that it would be better to erect new Keep Right signs, as it is better for a vehicle to hit the island than another vehicle.

Miceli also said that Mr. Ricelli of Shawsheen Avenue wanted a drain opened. It had been covered when the street was repaved.

He also wanted to know when Collective Bargaining would start. He was told that the board would discuss that later in the evening, in Executive Session.

MacDonald said that he was having the Highway Department erect a chain across the driveway between the Boutwell School and the West Intermediate School, to prevent through traffic between Carter Lane and Boutwell St. Backman said it would be a good idea to have a Not a Through Way sign at the Shawsheen Avenue end of Carter Lane. It was also decided to try to position posts for the chain in such a manner as to allow the passage of bicycles.

Timothy Ring of Cobalt Street appeared and asked if it would be possible to launch a rowboat into Silver Lake from Town owned land. After discussion of possible locations, TM Morris said he would be in touch with Mr. Ring.

Morris reminded the board of the County hearings, which had been scheduled for Thursday. (They have since been rescheduled for August 25th at 12:45 pm Ed.)

The board went into executive session at 9:45 pm.

Barbara Gurski Carey's "Box Project"

Barbara Gurski Carey displays a skirt, woolen, which is to be sold for 50c, as a part of "Box Project", Saturday.

Remember Barbara Gurski, you fellows and gals of the Class of 1961?

She is now Barbara Carey, and she lives at 15 Wisconsin Street, in South Tewksbury, and she has a hobby that is eminently useful and practical.

Barbara has "adopted" a family in Mississippi, and she helps provide for it, in various ways. It is a hobby that any middle class family can adopt.

Her family lives in Baird, Mississippi, and has nine children, living in a 1 room shack. The luxuries are a hot plate, and electricity to run it.

No running water, no oven, no refrigerator or appliances.

The children must have clothing and school supplies, and Barbara has set herself to helping with that work.

Shoes Needed

Barbara needs some shoes for the children in her adopted family. She needs specifically shoes for boys of ages 12, 10 & 7, and for girls of ages 9, 6 & 6 (twins). Any donations, she says, will be appreciated, and will be sent to the family.

Home Clothing Sale

But the main feature of Barbara's work is money that she raises by having a clothing sale, right in her home.

The money is used to help the family, every cent of it.

Barbara is conducting a sale this Saturday, at her home, and there are some bargains for mothers who have problems with providing the right clothing for their children.

Mis-matched mittens for 5c, and matched mittens for 20c. Girls' and boys' winter hats for 20c, and sweaters for 20c, too.

Teens mini-skirts sell for 50c, many of them woollens, and blouses sell for 15c. That's only a part of the list, for there are women's daytime dresses, baby clothes, boys sport coats, etc.

The sale will be Saturday (Aug 15), from 10 am to 5 pm., at her home at 15 Wisconsin Street, in South Tewksbury. Go to the South Tewksbury Methodist Church, on Rte 38, turn left onto South Street, and turn right onto Brown Street, which is the second right.

Wisconsin Street is the fourth right, off Brown Street.

And, every cent is to go to her family, in Mississippi.

How did Barbara get into her project? She read a story, in the Boston Globe about it - the name is "Box Project".

Nothing like Solving the Crime before it Happens

A Wilmington policeman is being credited with the solving of a crime before it happened.

Officer Fred Ward noticed, on August 5th three young men parking their car near the Wallace Motors garage on Main Street, and then walking towards the junction of Main and Lowell Street. He jotted down the license plate number in his notebook because he thought their actions were a little odd.

Shortly afterwards an investigation discovered that $260 had been taken from the gas register of the Sunoco gas station at the junction of Main Street and Lowell Street. It had taken presumably while the owner was in the back room checking progress on a job there.

He was able to recall seeing a youth, with long blonde hair, wearing sneakers but no socks, having been in the front yard a few minutes before the money was discovered to be missing.

A check with the Registry of Motor Vehicles showed that the number plate belonged to a car owned in Burlington, and a little detective work resulted in the names of three youths who frequently use that car.

All three were arraigned in Woburn Court next morning, before Justice Francis Cullen. All are juveniles.

School Committee appoints Teachers Aids

Twelve new Teacher Aides, all from the Town of Wilmington, have been appointed by the School Committee to assist teachers in school.

Appointed were Shirley Pumfrey, Theresa Pintrich, Linda Lingenfelter, Muriel Eremka, Helen Domigan, Susan Curtis, Phyllis Amaro, Beverly Vokey, Frances Rasmussen, Mabel Daley, Mary Cuoco and Priscilla Marshall.

Several librarians were elected: For the North Intermediate School Mrs. Stella Greenblatt, for the West Intermediate, Mrs. Hazel G. Paiva, and for the Woburn Street School Mrs. Barbara Beaucher.

Three new teachers were hired: Amy C. Lind of Lexington, with a B.A. from Regis College, to teach History and English in grades 7 & 8; Richard M. Malcolm of Winchester, B.S. from Salem State College, to teach Geography, grades 7 & 8; and Abigail M. Russell of Stoneham, B.S. from Salem State College, to teach History in grades 7 & 8.

Two new secretaries were hired to fill positions left vacant earlier this year.

Patricia A. Gearty of Lawrence St. is to be the secretary in the High School, and Rita K. Willett of Federal Street is to be employed in the central office.

After a short executive session the School Committee appointed John Lynch to be Co-ordinator of Student Activities in the High School.

Other Business

The firm of Hire Croft Educational Services, Inc. of Waterford, Conn. were hired for the purpose of providing Wilmington with a revision and updating School Board Policies and Regulations.

Transportation bids (taxi) were awarded to Joe's Taxi of Wilmington for in-town services, to Dorothy Frotten for out-of-town services to North Reading, Waltham and Randolph; and to Town Taxi of Wilmington for out-of-town services to Boston, Watertown, Lowell and Lawrence.

The committee decided to have a public meeting in the West Intermediate School cafeteria, for the purpose of discussing new school programs. The meeting was tentatively scheduled for Sept 2nd (a Wednesday) at 8 pm, instead of the original thought of having it on the third, in the thought that more people could attend, in the middle of the week.

KIDS CHASE THE MOSQUITO - FOGGING TRUCK

The Town Crier has received two reports this week of youngsters busy chasing the Tree Department truck that roams the streets of Wilmington about sunset daily, spraying against mosquitoes.

One reader reported children running after the truck, in the middle of the fog produced, on Carolyn Road, last Friday. The reader did not realize the children were chasing the truck until almost too late, and he believes the town employees did not know of it at all.

Another reader reports a similar incident on Lawrence Street and Shady Lane Drive, Monday evening.

This time the employees became aware of the youngsters, and they stopped the spraying for the area and left for other places.

Church Vandalized

The Forest Street Congregational Church, at the corner of Forest Street and Aldrich Road, has been the subject of several acts of vandalism, recently.

A few weeks ago unknown persons broke into the church and stole a small amount of money. Since then no money has been left in the church, but there have been repeated acts of vandalism.

Last Saturday vandals entered and committed several acts, including throwing the church cross on the floor, in the sanctuary. Police discovered the window open, during a routine patrol.

REGISTRATION AT LIBRARY FOR STORY HOURS

The beginning and the end happen at the Library during the week of August 17.

The summer programs meet for the last time at their regularly scheduled hours.

But registration for the fall pre-school story hour starts on August 17. Beginning in September, each child enrolled there will be attending a story hour every two weeks.

Parents should contact the children's librarian for further information.

HOUSE No. 5846

By Mr. Cain of Wilmington, petition of Fred F. Cain and Robert A. Vigneau (by vote of the towns) for legislation to change and establish the boundary line between the towns of Burlington and Wilmington. Local Affairs. [Local Approval Received.]

A Public Service Report From Representative Fred F. Cain

Wilmington - Burlington boundary dispute resolution

County to draw boundary line

BOSTON — Rep. Fred F. Cain of Wilmington has arranged for Middlesex County officials to survey the town line between Wilmington and Burlington, discovered to be about 100 feet in error this September.

In a letter to Town Manager Sterling Morris of Wilmington, Cain said that the County would draw boundary lines as soon as the survey teams at Woburn and Lowell streets become available.

CAIN'S LETTER was issued in response to communications from Morris who told the Representative he advised Burlington's town counsel against legal action pending steps by Cain.

Cain told The Sun that the line was also the line between north and south Middlesex County. It was found to be about 100 feet in error.

The problem first arose this September when approximately 40 people thought to be living in Wilmington discovered they were living in Burlington.

THE APPARENT error in surveying or recording was discovered when a mapping survey approved at the Burlington 1966 town meeting was carried out. The survey showed that Burlington's town boundaries were in error, according to David Batchelder, the town's full time tax assessor.

At the time of the discovery, George W. Boylen, Jr., chairman of the Wilmington selectmen, stated that an "intolerable" burden had been placed on the people involved.

At the time, the 40 residents faced double tax payments, assessments by each community.

BOYLEN said then that he was advised by his town counsel that unless town officials from Burlington and Wilmington could alleviate the problem, it would be necessary to take the case to land court.

Wilmington, however, also had conducted a preliminary survey which indicated that the town line should have been moved approximately 100 feet farther toward Wilmington than it then stood.

Batchelder told selectmen in Burlington that he would advise people to pay taxes to Wilmington and then apply for abatements from both towns.

The problem was subsequently left up to Burlington and Wilmington town counsels and town engineers to resolve.

Wilmington Claims Survey 100 Feet In Error; Families Confused

Rep. Fred Cain (D-Wilmington) has stepped into an ensuing legal action between officials of Burlington and Wilmington over a boundary line dispute, which if left to stand as is would put 40 people (who thought they were living in Wilmington) on this side of the Burlington line. This would necessitate a tax fight between the two towns over who should collect taxes past and present from these residents.

Cain has requested Town Counsels & officials against going to land court until a survey by the County can be obtained. Also important is that fact that this particular boundary line separates North and South Middlesex County, which are governed by separate land courts and registry of deeds.

A 1966 approved survey to map the town of Burlington disclosed an apparent error in the boundary line between the two towns, as it had previously stood, putting supposedly Wilmington property under Burlington jurisdiction. Wilmington, in a preliminary survey has indicated the town line should be moved 100 feet further in the Wilmington direction.

Town counsels and engineers have not resolved the problem, thus the need for an impartial body . . . the county engineers?

(From the Town Crier of Wilmington) Representative Cain

A letter was received from the County Commissioners, confirming that they had been requested, through Rep. Fred F. Cain, to survey the boundary between Wilmington and Burlington, now in dispute.

The letter advised that the County Engineering Department will 're-establish the town line, as established by Chapter 2 of the Acts of 1730, from the vicinity of the Fox Hill School in Burlington northwesterly to the Burlington-Billerica town corner.'

The Selectmen were asked to 'please advise us at your earliest possible convenience if this reproduction will be acceptable.'

With a sigh of relief the Board unanimously agreed that it was.

Then, with their eyes still evidently on Mr. Cain, the Selectmen proceeded to insert a couple of words in a letter prepared by the Town Counsel, relative to taking

Boundary snafu closer to solution in legislature

STATE HOUSE — The Senate yesterday gave initial approval to a bill, filed by Reps. Fred Cain and Robert Vigneau, which would set out the proper boundary lines between Wilmington and Burlington.

The measure went before the Local Affairs Committee three weeks ago, was reported out favorably and passed in the House on July 1, after which it went before the Senate.

Approximately two years ago, when Burlington drew up a new map, it was discovered that the town boundary lines between Burlington and Wilmington were inaccurate.

The problem was compounded when several residents who lived along the boundary line, received real estate tax bills from both Wilmington and Burlington.

Since that time, selectmen from both communities through their request of town counsels, have been working to correct the historically inaccurate boundary lines, and this apparently resulted in the Senate and House bill action.

Hey, all you good people, what fun we had on the vacation...but too short...we got to swim and sun, and read a book, and nap in a hammock and that's quite a swap for this

Chick...and only two of the Squaws of the Clan came with, so there wasn't even any squabbling, and they even helped with the cooking and cleaning, so it was just great but all too short...however, it was worth it...We snuck back into town Thursday night for the School Committee Seance, and then on Friday took that No. 2 Daughter to the Surgeon's for her o.k., and came back feeling much elated for all the kind words he had for her as his patient

...She's quite a gal, and he's quite a surgeon...the guy must be a genius with that operation he invented for that kid...So we are feeling mighty proud of being the Clan's Ma this week...Course meanwhile...we'll tell you about the Hut later!

Those Methodists are in for a treat this Sunday at 9:30 am...Wilbur Syles, a music evangelist will be leading the service...He is a lay speaker, song leader, and hymn time recording artist, and features the Cordovox...So this ought to be a Swinger for you young folk...Come on one and all...Methodists or No This should be a good service...

We understand that Ed Deschenes the Sr of this Town missed this Chick's gab this week...Hey that's the fourth Golden Ager that let this Gal know that she was sorely missed and she is really puffed up, on account of she didn't realize that she had so many faithful followers in that Group...Welcome aboard there Folkses...and we'll try to get more news in your direction...Thanks a bunch for those kind words!

Did ya know that the Wollers of Main Street have had a trip to Hawaii, Tokyo, Osaka, Taipei, Bangkok, Hongkong, and home...Say, there Marion and Elmer that must have been a trip...Let's hear more about it, huh, please.

Bill McNabb and the Frau flew to Honolulu for that Ntl Letter Carriers Biennial Convention...and we tried to wangle our way, but you know how that is...can't pass for a mailman this week...but we'll work on that for next week.

And the cards this week go to Sylvia Bowman of High Street and the Town Hall, who is recuperating from an operation at the Winchester Hospital and is expected to be home this weekend...Also to George Webster who is recuperating at home on Andover Street after hospitalization last week...So, make with those cards, there Gals...Thanks!

Thought you should see this one from one of our fellas overseas, who asked me not to publish his name: 'I am stationed in Viet Nam, and receive the TC each week. I was reading letters people write to you. The one most interested in is the one written by Wayne Lockamon about hanging around the Plaza.

'He stated there isn't nothing else to do...that to me is just an excuse There is always something to do nights. It just doesn't have to be in the Town of Wilmington. Half of these kids don't even have jobs or money in their pockets...If they did, I'm sure they could find something. If not, JOIN THE SERVICE...They'll take care of you for a while.

'I live in Wilmington, and I can always find something to do besides hang around the Plaza...Why don't they try it!

(And, we'll really see if they think there isn't anything to do, by the number of kids that show up for that Teen Talk Meeting on August 20, and give us their views and ideas I certainly am glad that that letter arrived this week...Nice Going there Viet Nam...Let's see these kids put the work where their mouths have been...Get the message you Guys?

Had a letter from a Ma...a proud one in the Fairmeadow - Nichols St Section, who doesn't want us to tell it all...but she is mighty proud of the Winners we have in the Little League of which her son is one...and we know how she feels...All of you guys and the managers and coaches really deserve the praise this year...Nice Going!

Her Poem:

Good for you
Wilmington League All Star Team
You Guys are really on the Beam
Three championships you've won
Now on to the State
We know you can do it...you're great
We're just a small Town
In this Good Ole USA
But our team plays the American way
They've practised hard
Their leadership is strong
These boys know they all belong
To a Team that works together
An education they'll remember.
God Bless You All
You stand so tall
Now on to OXFORD...and
Let's Play Ball!!

Charlotte Stewart came into the Red Plush Pad this morning and she wants all of you guys and dolls to know this: HEAR YE, HEAR YE
There will be a TEEN MEETING in the Library Conference Room for the Recreation Commission with the new Director Ken Zucker on August 20 at 8 pm, and she wants you all to show with your ideas...and she guarantees that they will listen...That means all of you TEENS...and even the low twenties INCLUDING the Squares, Kooks, Athletes, and the In-betweens...So here's your chance Kids to tell it like it is...You say NOBODY will listen...Well, we're listening NOW...GO, Men, Go!

Hey, Doll, my pleasure...and hope we can repeat that soon...That coffee and...real fun! And...

To the Counsellor...Sorry we missed that on your coffeetime...Hope you all had as good a time in Ogunquit as this Chick and her Clan...Great spot for a short rest...More fun for a long one me thinks.

Say, All of You Folkses...It's that time again...Pick-up time...Where's the Town Spirit...We noted many coke cans on the lawn of the P.O. on Monday, so we were doing our usual bending and stooping til we couldn't carry any more, and one Fella says to us...Hey, Nance, you can't clean all of those up, walking gaily by...and this Gal retorted, 'Mebbe not, but every litter bit helps...So, now...It's up to you. We only have one street sweeper, me thinks, and the boys are busy building roads...So, we've been thinking of asking The Chief for a vacuum cleaner...DeMoulas type to do the sidewalks in the Square...but meanwhile...let's get with that bending and picking, you all...good for that physical fitness too Thanks, we knew you would.

Karen and Linda Novello, Phil and Ed Valente, Shirley McGrath, Laurie Forsgate, Scott Dindo, and Scott O'Connell went to town this week and Mike Wenberg donated Penny Candy for their Muscular Dystrophy Project...Hear they collected and sold small toys...netting $8.77 for the Fund...That's how to do it Kids and we can use you Doers in this Berg. Congratulations!

That Highway-Tree Department vs Custodians Baseball Game on July 19th made $35.71 for the Jimmy Fund...Those are our Boys!

Did you read that one about the two kids in Florida who purchased death for $1.13...Seems that these kids bought some asthma-relieving drugs called 'Green Dragon' for $1.13...and proceeded to take it for some highness, after they had been smoking some pot...so the combination produced a breathing stoppage while they were in swimming, causing them to drown...So...other kids in the party said these guys thought they could walk on water...Boy, that's

Some people think our voice is small. As we cry for a kindergarten for all. The money, the roof, the teachers, they cry

This for our children, they will not buy. Are we really asking so much? Think of the children such a program would touch.

Look at the anguish a child has to bear. When he is told he must repeat his first year. Ask the teachers, look around. A kindergarten is needed in our town. Each year the school committee looks away. An puts it off for another day. The time is now: our voice is growing strong. We have waited for a kindergarten far too long!

Third Best, in State Finals

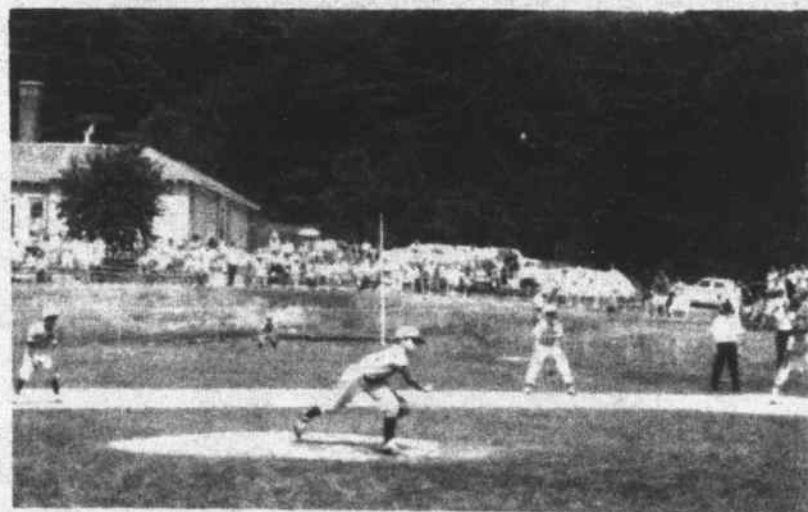

THE WILMINGTON L.L.

Wilmington's Little Leaguers: Lined up on the Third Base Line, Saturday afternoon.

Mike Whalen relieved the pitcher in the Friday game, in the sixth inning and slammed the door, too late, on Parkway National.

Bobby Aprile, who played Center Field, picked up a Save, when he came in as relief pitcher in the Saturday game. He was one of the best players in the tournament.

TV Interview, after the Saturday game. Wilmington Manager Larry Foster, Kevin Nolan, and TV interviewers Fouracker & Coleman from TV Channel 27, in Worcester.

The Wilmington Little League All-Stars gained a third place finish in the State Finals last weekend. Competition was held in Oxford, Mass., with the Wilmington Team splitting its two encounters.

Friday afternoon, the boys played Parkway National in a semi-final game, and came out on the short end of a 9-2 count. Charlie Sullivan drew the starting pitching assignment with hopes of gaining his fourth tourney win.

Both teams were visibly nervous in the opening innings of play, as each wasted good scoring opportunities. Wilmington, in the second frame, left runners on second and third, and Parkway left a man on base in each of the first three frames.

In the top of the fourth, Sullivan gave up a one out two run homer to Gabe Tang. Charlie bore down and struck out Knox only to have the following hitter, Kalcunas, slam a double inside the third-base bag. This set the stage for a key play in the loss. While pitching to the next batter, Sully wild pitched the base runner to third. On the next pitch, O'Keefe bunted down the first base line. Sully fielded the ball clean, but in his haste to make the third out of the inning, threw the ball past Nolan at first base, allowing Kalcunas to score and the batter-runner to move to second base.

O'Halloran, the next batter rifled a singled to left field and O'Keefe came all the way home as Left-fielder Jim Sughrue errored on the batted ball. Jim Celeste grounded out to end the fateful inning.

Wilmington got two men on in the bottom of the fourth, with one out, as Sullivan and Nolan slammed consecutive singles. But they died on base, as Dorval and Peabody grounded out.

Parkway made 5-0 in the top of the fifth, on winning pitcher Joe Celeste's home run, over the center field fence. Peabody and Sughrue led off the bottom half of the fifth, with base hits. But, they were left stranded at first and third as first three batters in the Wilmington lineup were unable to do anything with Celeste's pitches.

The other half of the Parkway brother combination, Jim Celeste, belted a grand slam homer in the top of the final inning to ice the win for the West Roxbury nine.

Following the one-out shot, Mike Whalen came in to pitch for Wilmington and the diminutive right-hander retired the side without any further damage.

Our boys scored in the bottom of the sixth to avoid being shut-out. Sullivan led the frame with a base on balls, his second of the game, and roared home with the first Wilmington run on Nolan's line double to left. Kevin hustled into third, with a headlong slide, as the Parkway left fielder made a poor throw on the play. Nolan then scored as the third baseman's throw home hit Kevin on the batting helmet, and bounced away from the catcher.

Wilmington could not sustain the rally as Celeste bore down to retire the side. In suffering his first tourney setback, Sullivan threw 102 pitches in 5 1/3 innings, allowing 12 hits while walking 2 and whiffing 7. The inability of the top of the batting order to hit in this contest bogged down the attack as Wilmington left a total of seven runners on base.

In the other semi-final game on Friday, Weymouth So. shutout Leominster, 3-0. The pairings for Saturday's consolation and championship game were now set. Wilmington squared off against Leominster at one o'clock with Kevin Nolan hurling against Jay Burke.

Wilmington drew first blood in the bottom of the initial frame, as Russo led with a walk. Dan Burns making his first tourney start at shortstop, grounded to short, as he faked a bunt, and slammed the ball to the Leominster infielder who threw the ball away at first base in his attempt to put Burns out. Russo scored on the play, and Burns ended up on second, and our boys were off and running.

LeClaire led off the top of the second with a towering homer to right center to knot the score at 1-1. From this point until the top of the fifth, Nolan was a very sharp retiring ten batters in succession before walking a batter with one out in the fifth frame.

Meanwhile, the Wilmington offensive attack, sparked by Sullivan and Gravalese gained momentum. Hurley led the last of the third with a base on balls. Charlie Sullivan, pinch-hitting for Fairweather, singled to center. Nolan then walked to load the bases. Bob Dorval went down on strikes for the first out. Bobby Aprile, the next batter, slammed a single over the mound and into center field, scoring Hurley and Sullivan and moving Nolan over in third. Tony Gravalese, batting for Les Peabody, followed with a sharp single to right, scoring Nolan with the third run of the inning.

Sullivan ended the scoring for Wilmington with his second tourney home run in the fifth frame. Charlie's blast over the right field fence followed a one-out walk to Hurley.

Nolan tired in the final inning, as he walked the first man in the top of the sixth, this was only his second pass of the game. Kevin whiffed the next two batters and the situation looked promising. But the next hitter was Mike LeClaire, and he powered a 3-2 fast ball over the left field fence to narrow the Wilmington lead to 6-3. LeClaire's blast traveled some three hundred feet into the parking lot, and was the longest homer to be poled in the four game set at Oxford.

Nolan walked the next batter on four pitches, and then hit the following-hitter and now faced the tying run at the plate. At this point, Mgr Foster lifted Kevin in favour of Bob Aprile.

A Two-Run home run, by Guy Tang of Parkway National in the fourth inning on Friday, opened the scoring in the tournament, and was the beginning of the Big Inning for Parkway. Tang is shown rounding third base, with 3rd baseman Rich Russo disgruntled holding his hands on his hips.

He's Safe - but he's Out! Joe O'Hallaron, Parkway First Baseman, is being declared safe by the umpire as he hits third base, but the second base umpire had already ruled him out, as he was hit by a batted ball.

Friday's pitchers were Charlie Sullivan (left) of Wilmington, and Joe Celeste of Parkway, one of the outstanding players of the state finals.

What is blood pressure?

Blood pressure, measured in two levels, is the degree of pressure exerted by the heart and arteries to keep the blood circulating throughout the body.

When the doctor takes your blood pressure, what he examines is the condition of your blood vessels, particularly the small ones. The blood pressure tells him how well the blood vessels contract and keep the flow of blood moving.

High blood pressure, a condition that afflicts so many of us, is the result of hypertension: the small blood vessels, the arterioles, are contracted by the nerves, they become narrow, and the flow of blood slows down. Thus the heart must pump twice as fast to keep the blood circulation!

Court refuses to evict Town Tenants

Justice Francis Cullen of Woburn Court has refused an Eviction Notice asked by the Town of Wilmington for tenants in two Grove Avenue apartment houses which have been taken by the Town in Eminent Domain proceedings.

The two buildings, located near Silver Lake, were taken by the town as the result of the vote of the Town Meeting last March. The purpose is to destroy the buildings, and to enlarge the beach area of the Town Beach, for bathing purposes.

Judge Cullen, in refusing the immediate eviction orders, said that at this time of the year the town would be unable to raze the buildings and provide beaches suitable for use in the remaining weeks of the summer season.

The tenants were given ninety days to find new homes.

The two buildings which the town has taken by eminent, on Grove Ave., have a little interesting history.

The first one, as one comes from

Main Street, was originally built to be the Silver Lake Library, sometime about 1900, in the days when Silver Lake was at the end of the Street Car run from Boston, and was a great summer-time resort.

The Library lasted only for a few years, and was probably entirely a 'volunteer' institution, that is, not town supported. The Town Fathers of that day (or one of them at least, who has been so quoted) regarded the summer camps at Silver Lake as a blessing - money would be paid for taxes on the camps, and the City of Boston would have to pay for the education of the children.

Before one got to the Library there was another building - MacFarlane's Spa - a large sized structure which housed an 'ice cream palace' and a bathing house. In back were small cubicles which one could rent and change in, into the bathing costumes of the day, with the ladies in black with skirts which daringly showed the knees - but they wore black stockings so as to be not too daring, and men in full bathing suits that went down to the knees.

Mr. MacFarlane had a fine summer time business in the sale of ice cream, sodas and snacks, and the customers sat in old fashioned wire-backed chairs, at marble topped tables.

The Silver Lake Library soon became headquarters for the Silver Lake Mens Club, which was an active organization for young men, who, among other things, ran a 'country fair' every Labor Day weekend.

The country fair was a real attraction for the community. There would be swimming races, and canoe tilting contests, on the lake, outside of MacFarlane's Spa, and the big field on Cottage Street (no longer existing) would be the place where the carnival was held, with games of chance, and a merry-go-round, operated by Elmer Southmayd, who was the grandfather of the present drum-major of the Crusaders.

That merry-go-round was operated by a steam engine, which of course got its power from a steam boiler.

It was once the Silver Lake Library: The white building at right, on Grove Avenue, now an apartment house, was built to be a library for the people of Silver Lake.

At left is another apartment house, which once housed the store of Ralph Howe, and the barber shop of Charlie Wiggins.

Mr. Southmayd was the major-domo of that steam boiler, and when the time came to start or stop the merry-go-round he would shift levers, and do other things which were all quite mysterious to the young people of that era. The rides cost a nickel, which was a lot of money to the young people then, and most children were lucky to get two rides.

That merry-go-round was operated by a steam engine, which of course got its power from a steam boiler, and Mr. Southmayd was the major-domo of that steam boiler. It was all quite mysterious to the young people of that day, but the merry-go-round wasn't, and for a nickel (a big sum of money) a nice three minute ride could be had. Most children were lucky to get two rides.

The Silver Lake Mens Club eventually folded, and the building, about 1945, passed into private hands, to become, in effect, an apartment house. The other building which was taken by the town was Ralph Howe's store.

Ralph was an elderly gentleman who lived on Grove Avenue, in a home in which members of the family still lives.

Ralph built four cottages at the Main Street end of Grove Avenue, and he used to rent those cottages out, each summer, to vacationists.

And, as said, he had his store, up near the Silver Lake Men's Club, where he sold penny candy, and other sundries and groceries to the vacationers.

Also, in Ralph Howe's building, was the barber shop of Charlie Wiggins.

Charlie was a wonder to the people of Silver Lake. He had lost both legs in an accident, and yet he was able to drive a car!

That was, of course, in the days when there were only about 100,000 autos in the Commonwealth, so that a person who had a car was in himself a little prominent - but a man who had no legs driving a car -

Actually he had one artificial leg, for his right foot, and he got along very well on that, with the aid of a pair of crutches.

He had the car brake pedal fixed up with a simple extension, so that when he depressed the brake it also depressed the clutch - a very necessary thing in those days before automatic drive.

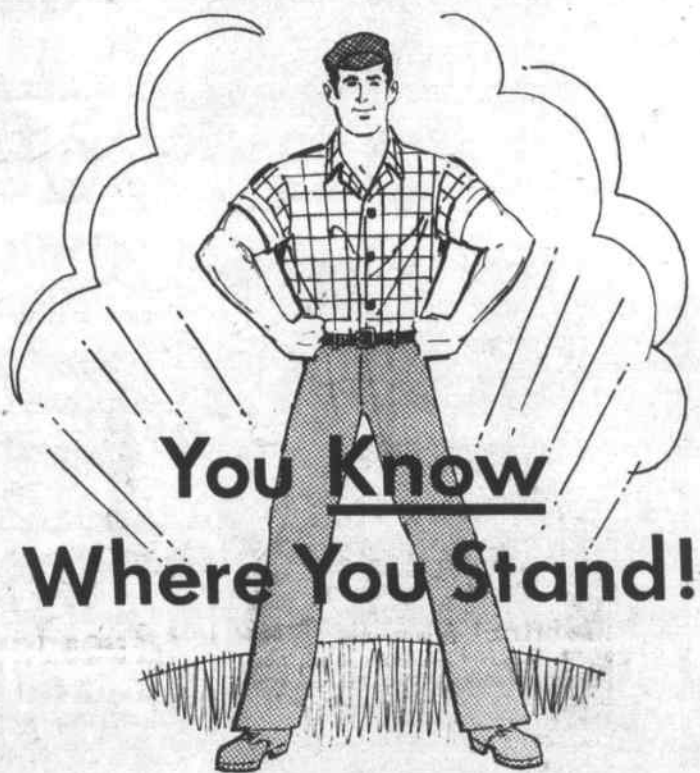

Charlie was beloved by the kids of the neighborhood. He never failed to 'pick-up' a child walking to and from school, or otherwise walking alongside the road. That was enough to make him popular.

But then, to see the clutch be driven in, when Charlie put his artificial foot on the brake pedal. It was enough to make those rides really memorable!

Beyond the store owned by Mr. Howe was another building, still standing, but not taken by the town for the beach expansion program.

This was the Smith Bakery. Mr. Smith continued to operate his business until in the 1930's, the last of the four businesses in that place.

The early morning smell of fresh baked bread was pleasing to the many people who used to take the train at the Silver Lake RR Station. They could sniff it, as they hurried by, and then in the evening, after returning from Boston, they would go in and buy some of that bread.

SOCIAL SECURITY PROBLEMS MAY BE SOLVED BY TELEPHONE

People who are eligible to sign up for old-age benefits, survivor's benefits, or Medicare coverage may now telephone the Lowell Social Security Office, and take care of most, or all, of the formalities by telephone. This approach will save time and money for both the people and for the Social Security office, according to Miss Eliopoulos, District Manager.

People who are still working and find it inconvenient to get to the Lowell office at the proper time, or others who have to depend on others for transportation and encouraged to try out the new service by calling 454-9152 week days from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. Members of the staff will get all the necessary information by telephone, and discuss proof of age and withholding tax statements, etc. needed to complete the claim.

Photon says: Future Bright

Robert M. Campbell, president of Photon Inc., of Wilmington, manufacturer of phototypesetting and related equipment, said after a meeting in the East Boston Airport Tuesday, that the future of the company looks good.

The meeting was held in the motel at the airport.

The company, he said, has a backlog of orders in excess of $2,000,000 on June 30th, which was about the same as of January 1. Several new products are being introduced in the last part of this year, which is expected to increase orders.

The company, he reported, is in good shape, and should have cash exceeding $6,000,000 at the end of the year.

Photon last week reported earnings at 15 cents a share for the first six months of 1970, compared to an earning of 13 cents in the same period last year.

The earnings did not include a payment from Eltra Corp of $1,000,000 under a patent suit settlement, with six more payments of $500,000 due in the next six years.

Campbell reports that sales for the first half of the year were $10,175,000 and he expects a 30% increase in sales for the last six months of the year.

Too bad the Smiths are paying all that money in heating bills.

They could be salting 70% of it away for next summer's vacation.

How come? Gas gives you a better deal.

It's a shame the Smiths have to choose between a warm house and a cool vacation. Somebody should have told them that in their area electric heat costs two and a half times as much as gas. Don't wait for somebody to tell you. Check into gas heat. (Then call your travel agent.)

In Division I play last Thursday night, Bedell's topped Sweetheart 11-5 to eliminate the plastic team from any playoff consideration. Hewhouse edged Sweetheart 6-5, in the second game of the evening to solidify its hold on the final playoff spot.

The feature game of the triple header saw NAPA eliminating Smithcraft, 11-3, in their Div. II semi-final best two of three series. This set the stage for a K of C NAPA best 3 out of 5 series for the semi-final playoff title.

The semi-finals of the fast-pitch section started last Friday night with Newhouse defeating Bemis 10-8 and the upstart DeLoury nine knocked off the pennant winning Miceli Club 11-6. Sunday evening Bemis Mobile came back to out slug Newhouse, 12-8 to even their series. The Miceli Club knotted their set with DeLoury with an 11-5 win. Six home runs were hit in the Bemis-Newhouse encounter. Lynn Billings knocked in 3 runs with a homer and a triple and Dick McKenna slammed two round trippers good for 3 rbi's while winning hurler Tom Stack belted a homer to pace Bemis. Roy Larouque knocked in 6 runs with a pair of circuit clouts and Lionel Baldwin chipped in with another homer for the losers.

On Monday night, DeLoury advanced to the Division I finals with a surprising 6-4 triumph over the Miceli Club. In the other half of the evenings twin-bill K of C, behind the pitching of Dick Elliott, defeated NAPA 10-5 to take a 1-0 lead in the Division II championship series.

George Pratt, 3 for 4 and 3 rbi's and Paul Smalley, 2 for 3 and 2 rbi's paced the surging Knights.

Tom Stack hurled a brilliant 2-hit shutout on a rainy Tuesday night as Bemis BMobile eliminated Newhouse from Division I playoffs 14-0. Dick McKenna, Jim Gillis, and Bob McNabb led the attack with a pair of hits each for the winners. Jack Cushing's Club will now battle the DeLoury nine in a best 3 out of 5 set to determine the fast pitch playoff championship.

Jaycees Sponsor Softball Tournament this Weekend

This weekend, the Wilmington Jaycees and the Wilmington Softball League under the direction of Jay Tighe, Commissioner, will co-sponsor the 1970 Massachusetts Industrial Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament.

Some of the best teams in the state will be gathered to play at the Wilmington Town Park, quite possibly the finest softball field in the state.

This is the first state tourney in Wilmington's history, and what with the success of the Little Leaguers, the Miceli Club in Wakefield, and the tournaments, and the fine new fast-pitch league, the Town can be proud of the quality and quantity of ball exhibited locally this summer.

In other news, the Jaycees announce they will again sponsor flag football for Wilmington adults this season.

Play will commence under the Town Park Lights in mid-September for the League's third season. Teams of individuals who wish to participate should contact Jack Gushing 658-6655 for further details.

How small is small? If the room is almost as compact as an economy-class cabin on a ship, it makes sense to pool the space instead of trying to be separate but equal.

As on a ship, the room has to be carefully planned and kept extra-ordinarily neat. Begin by eliminating everything not strictly necessary - like extra chairs.

Why not stack the beds? Especially if you're a child, bunks are fun. Incorporate bureau drawers, shelves, desk, in a single storage wall. Or float the desk so it juts out from a window with bookshelves at either end and a chair on each side for homework.

Building or remodeling? Make your plans carefully - Check your supplies before you start.

SWIMMING POOL
CARE

by Bob Le Favour

Diatomaceous earth is used in the production of many common home cleaners from tooth paste to car polish.

It is the porous skeletal remains of microscopic marine algae.

The scrubbing quality of this substance has been known for many years. The diatomaceous earth filter consists of plates, tubes, or grids coated with what appears to be a fine white powder. As the pool water is passed through the filter, the earth traps the sediment (dirt, algae, oxidized matter) on the precoat.

During the backwash or cleaning, both the sediment and the precoat are removed.

If your pool is suffering from colored water as a result of various metals or from algae it is well to clean your diatomaceous earth filter frequently.

Once you have achieved water clarity, diatomaceous earth should be added regularly to lengthen the filter cycle. Almost all large (100,000 - 200,000 gals.) pools employ a diatomaceous earth filter, which is perhaps indicative of how well respected they are.

Watch next week for Sand and Gravel Filters.

No Gold in Wilmington

Apparently no Treasure at Devil's Den. The young man, Carl Albert Jr., of Framingham, came to Wilmington recently to look for the reputed Capt. Kidd's Treasure at Devil's Den, in North Wilmington. He was accompanied by the young lady, Susan Boucher of Grafton, and had a mine detector, which is used to find buried metals.

As of the last observation there had been no digging in the area. The treasure is supposed to have been buried there according to a Harnden family legend dating back to the 1700's.

Silver Discovered in Woburn

Silver has been discovered in the City of Woburn.

Silver? Yes. Silver! The metal that brings up thoughts of the miners in the western deserts following their plodding mule into the sunset.

For several years the city has had a project of removing a volcanic rock hill, known as Rag Rock, for the purpose of providing more parking near the center of the city.

Rag Rock is situated off Montvale Avenue, behind the bowling alleys, and, it might be noted, it is also behind the Woburn National Bank.

The silver was assayed, and proven to be real, but not enough to get excited about. The Woburn Times printed a picture of Mayor Gill, on Rag Rock, examining the streak of silver.

And, with its tongue in its mouth, the Times reported that the last seen of the Mayor, he was plodding westward, behind a mule, looking for the place where the rest of Rag Rock had been dumped.

That's not smoke from Fire and Brimstone, hanging over the Congregational Church!

It comes from the bulldozer, in the foreground, which is busy enlarging the parking lot for the church. There'll be no excuse for not attending services now.
